Dr Pappu Garu and Library!

This Weekend Telugu-WARu enjoyed the Company of Dr Pappu Venugopala Rao garu. In him we found a scholar, a poet, a philosopher and a humble and friendly human being keen in advocating the rich heritage of Telugus.

On Saturday, he enthralled us with Chatuvulu and gave us a rare glimpses of the rituals that are conducted at Tirumal Tirupathi and how Sri Annamacharya encapsulated those rituals in his compositions.

On Sunday Dr Pappu garu explained and espoused the literary works of Potana and Srinathudu—the way each approached Bhakti .

Seedling of WATA library is planted this weekend. WATA takes the auspicious and encouraging presence of Dr Pappu garu amongst us in Perth and announces the formation of Telugu

Sahiti Library with a small collection of books autographed by Dr Pappu garu. Dr Pappu garu are also kind enough to offer us a collection of books for our little library. In the coming days, modalities of issuing the books we already have on loan to WATA members will be announced by WATA. WATA members and member applicants are requested to offer any Telugu books they may have with them for the library.
